

Kayaking on the Delaware River

Sunday July 12, 2015 9:45 AM (Be on Time)

Reber River Trips, Barryville, New York

Join the Morris County Ski Club for a day of kayaking on the upper Delaware River. We will be meeting at the Reber River Trips base in Barryville, New York where we will be renting single kayaks. The trip length will be about 11 miles and the total time will be dependent upon the weather and water conditions that day. There will be a few stretches of relatively easy whitewater to kayak through. We will stop about halfway along the trip for lunch, swimming and photography. We will finish our day with food and drinks at a local establishment.

The cost for members is $45 for members and $50 for non-members

Included with the cost are kayaks, paddles, life jackets, local transportation (courtesy of Reber River Trips – www.reberrivertrips.com (1-845-557-3332) and lots of fun.

You will need to bring

- Swim wear and a change of clothes. You will get wet.
- Old sneakers, river sandals, or water sneakers/shoes for kayaking. Flip flops, or open back shoes are not recommended.
- Sunscreen and sunglasses.
- A small cooler containing your lunch packed in zip lock bags
- Bungee cords for securing your cooler to the kayak
- NO GLASS containers on the river,
- No previous kayak experience is necessary but you should be comfortable around water.
