

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In case you didn't you - you - the MCSC membership - are awesome!

During the last few weeks you:

- Donated over 160 lbs. of food and $100 cash for the Morris County Interfaith Food Pantry
- Rang Bells and collected donations for the Salvation Army
- Donated 8 very large bags of gifts for teens for the annual Toys for Tots collection

Each organization has expressed their thanks and gratitude

And... what a tremendous turnout we had for our annual Holiday AAF at Vanderbilt's! It was nice seeing so many of our current and past members. We even had several prospective members in attendance. As always - this was a great way to kick off the holiday season!

We also had fun kicking off the holiday/ski season at our membership meeting on Dec 9. We raffled off lift tickets to mountains in PA NY and VT. Congrats to all the winners!

Those in attendance at the Dec 9 meeting also learned that MCSC will no longer be meeting at the Hanover Marriott due to a significant increase in the cost for meeting space. So... beginning Tuesday January 13 - MCSC will be heading back to the Ramada Inn/ Fairbridge on Rt 10 East in East Hanover (directly opposite Hanover Lanes Bowling alley). Our meeting room should be on the main level of the hotel. We will have a sign posted directing you to the room. Feel free to stop in at Miami Mike's and get a beverage to bring to the meeting. We will continue with the same meeting format - A formal meeting on the 2nd Tuesday of the month- beginning at 7:30pm and an informal meeting on the 4th Tuesday at Miami Mike's - beginning at 7pm.

Lastly, I would like to wish all our members and their families a very Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah and a Healthy, Happy New Year!

Helen

SKI DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays to all,

December is finally here and ski season is seriously finally underway.

We have 32 of us going to Italy and 37 to Montana so that's 69 of us (actually less with double dippers) who pre purchased their holiday gifts for 2015. Ski Season 2015 will definitely be a season to be jolly. Ho Ho Ho and all that jazz. Contact Cindy or Beth for wait list details.\

We'll have our first day trip to Bellaire in January on Saturday either the 10th or the 17th depending on conditions. Stay tuned for the exact date and details.

Bev and Gina stepped up to consider running a long weekend trip out to Breckenridge at the end of March. We'll put that trip on sale in January with a 2 week window to sign up and confirm numbers with our Travel Agent. Stay tuned.

How about a drive yourself weekend up to Mount Snow in February? Talk to me if interested.

Enjoy the holidays with friends and family.
Ed Tideman,
your Ski Director

Upcoming Ski Trips

Italy Ski Trip 2015

January 23 to February 2

The European Ski Trip is to Madonna di Campiglio in Italy, with a 2 night extension in Florence and stop in Bologna on the way.

We fly on Swiss Air from Newark (a United Star Alliance partner) with flights from Newark to Milan via Zurich and Florence via Zurich back to Newark. With Swiss Air- "skis fly free".

Madonna di Campiglio is about a 3 hour Bus ride from Milan Airport.

In Madonna di Campiglio, we will be staying at the 4 Star Hotel Miramonti and included are a daily breakfast and daily dinner. The hotel is located in the center of town and very close to the ski lifts.

We will be skiing in the area known as the Dolomiti di Berenta which includes the Valleys of Val Rendena (our valley) and the Val di Sole. There are 90 miles of trails and a 5,400 vertical drop with 61 lifts (that includes 17 gondolas, 34 chairs and 10 drag lifts). There are 100 Trails with a breakdown of 45 blue, 37 red and 18 black.

Twenty-two mountain restaurants with beautiful views await you.

The town of Madonna di Campiglio is a beautiful mountain ski town. It has many shops, restaurants, bars and night spots. All walking distance from our hotel. A day trip to Trento may be in your plans.

After 7 nights in the Dolomites, we leave for Florence, which is about 5 hours away. To break up the travel day, we will stop in Bologna for a 3 hour break for lunch and exploration. In the Bologna historic center, medieval palaces are clustered around two central piazzas flanked by the churches of San Petronio and San Domenico. The University of Bologna is the oldest in Europe.

Arriving in Florence, we will check into our hotel, The Grand Hotel Mediterraneo for 2 nights. On Sunday, we will have a 2 hour walking tour of Florence with an English speaking guide. Or just explore on your own. Florence is considered the center of the Renaissance with the artistic and cultural reawakening in the 15th century. Climb up the dome on the massive Duomo, stroll across Ponte Vecchio spanning the Arno River, view fine art at the famous Uffizi Gallery or just wander around Piazza della Signoria.

We have an afternoon flight (2:40 PM) out of Florence on Monday and will arrive back in New Jersey on Monday night at 8:25 PM.

We have only 26 spots reserved for this journey, so act fast. Another Ski Club has asked to join with us but MCSC Members will have 1st priority during the 1st month on sale.

Cindy Humphrey will be our Trip Leader and can be contacted at clumphrey@yahoo.com.

NJ Ski & Snowboard Council News

Nancy McLaughlin

Resorts have been open in Vermont for a couple of weeks, and even local resorts in NJ and PA have been open a few days. Everyone is excited about the upcoming ski season. We had record sales of the Pocono Card this year as it increases in popularity. Our order has been sent and we can expect the cards to come in towards the end of December. If you would like your cards before the January 13th meeting, send me a SASE for a speedy return. Otherwise you can pick them up at that meeting Jan. 13th.

Ski Council discount lift ticket sales have also had a vigorous start this year. If you wish to purchase discount lift tickets, please go to the Yahoo Group Site and check the meeting/pick up schedule on the bottom of the "2014-2015 Voucher/Lift Ticket Form" in files under the "NJ Ski & Snowboard Council Discounts and Info." file. Plan ahead so you get your tickets

Past Events

OKTOBERFEST

By Steve (the snowboarder)

A total of 22 members went on the Morris County Ski Club Oktoberfest on Saturday, October 11th. We all met at the Zeppelin Beer Hall which is an authentic European style Biergarten, located in Jersey City. We sat at the thirty foot long community tables and had great conversations while enjoying authentic German food and beer. Later that evening a German Oompah band performed, so of course we felt obligated to dance. A great time was had by all!!

BOWLING

By Julian Villager

On Friday, November 7th twenty-eight of MCSC's finest met at Hanover Lanes on Rt 10 for a fun night of bowling. After all 7 teams checked in, received lane assignments, donned their fancy shoes, and selected the perfect ball (or for some several perfect balls) everyone was able to take a few practice rounds to warm up. At 8pm, the teams officially showed off their skills for the next 2+ hours to the beat of 80's music which later transitioned to today's popular music videos (think Britney Spears).

Ski Tales

Some notable moments of the night were when Ed came dressed to impress wearing his Hawaiian shirt and sporting a Central European persona as "Stosh" while Frank was sporting his winning form with one serious leg kick! (see photo). Mako celebrated her enthusiasm with her "happy dance" during this high energy evening. After a little more than two hours of bowling, I tallied the scores and announced the winners who each received a bottle of wine for their efforts.

The award categories and winners were:

Skills awards

Best form - Frank Riley

Highest team score - Beth Hylsip, Mike Kibalo, Jean Kibalo*, Rich Rusznak

*Notably Jean had the highest total score of the evening with 479 pins!

Most strikes - Joe Cifune

Spirit awards

Best bowling shirt - Ed Tideman

Best form - Mako Murpy

Most spirit - Diane Engel

Lucky strikes - Natalia Gaida

That night, we were all feeling especially grateful to be together for this annual event. Thanks to everyone who participated.
