

MCSC Super Bowl Weekend in Lake Placid, NY!

February 6th to 9th, 2026

Join the Morris County Ski Club as we spend Super Bowl weekend (and the opening weekend of the 2026 Winter Olympics in Milan) at the site of the 1932 and 1980 Olympics at Lake Placid, NY.

This self-drive/carpool trip will be three-night trip held from Friday, February 6th through Monday, February 9th 2026 to ski Whiteface (and Gore?) Mountain. Cars can be left at the ski club meeting place (VFW Post 3401 at 45 Tabor Road Morris Plains).

Complete Trip Cost: $820 for MCSC members or $850 for nonmembers and includes a 3-night stay at 4-star hotel with continental breakfasts daily, lift tickets for 3 days of skiing (at either Whiteface or Gore) and Super Bowl party on Sunday night. For anyone interested, single accommodations will be available for $1,250. Also, a $50 deduction will be given for anyone choosing a 2-day lift ticket (good Saturday and Sunday) or a $200 deduction with no lift tickets included.

Lake Placid features a wealth of winter activities from ice skating, bobsled and luge rides, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing and dog sledding. There are many great restaurants, bars and shops in town. You can also attend the nearby Saranac Lake Winter Festival or even the Lake George Winter festival (on the way up/down) in your travels.

Accommodations will be at the 4-star Grand Adirondacks Hotel located in the center of town. The hotel is in walking distance of most of the nearby attractions and features rooms with either 2 queen beds or 1 king one (request configuration at signup).
